

EFI-IFSA-IUFRO project employers' interviews

Open call for 12 student assistants!

ABOUT THE ASSIGNMENT

The Global student networking and green jobs in the forest sector project by the European Forest Institute (EFI), International Forestry Students' Association (IFSA), and the International Union of Forest Research Organizations (IUFRO), will be conducting employers' interviews from end of September to December 2021. The interviews aim at identifying employers' perceptions on the changing nature of employment in the forest sector now and in future. The employers will be drawn from five countries (Brazil, Finland, Germany, South Africa, and United States of America). The interview results will contribute to the future of forest sector employment study carried out by the project. More details are available in the employers' interviews concept note: <https://bit.ly/3sH2Dd3>

YOUR ROLE

The project is looking for 12 student assistants: 10 from the above-mentioned countries to help in conducting the interviews in their respective countries. This includes contacting the employers, carrying out interviews and transcribing them. An additional 2 student assistants from any country of the world are required to help interview international forest-related employers. The student assistants will undergo a training on how to conduct interviews. The tasks will take approximately 10 hours a month. This is not a paid position, and the student assistants are expected to work remotely. Students from the same country will work as a tandem. The student assistants will gain research experience from working with a diverse group of researchers.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Be a student or recent graduate in a forest-related programme from Brazil, Finland, Germany, South Africa, or the United States of America
- Be from any country of the world to help in interviewing international forest-related employers
- Application should be submitted through google forms: <https://bit.ly/3jeztz>. Please upload your CV (2 pages max) and membership verification from your IFSA Local Committee if applicable (IFSA membership is not a requirement but will be considered an asset).

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Applications will be considered on a rolling basis until 9th September 2021, the earlier you apply the better.
